WEDNESDAY MORNING, NOV 11 1863

Crowded Out —Owing to the pressure of important news brought by the steamer, very many articles intended for this morning's issue are crowded out

The Idaho Murderers —We learn from San Francisco papers that the four Idaho murderers were arrested in that city, but as strenuous efforts were made to procure their release by means of the writ of habeas corpus, it was feared it might be accomplished. One paper states that the matter was pending before the Supreme Court at Sacramento, last Saturday A private letter received here last night states that the miners there from the North are very much exasperated, and it has been thought that if the application for their release is granted, an effort to administer justice to the murderers will be made without the intervention of the courts We find the following, touching their arrest, in the S F Bulletin ·

On Thursday last a telegram was received by Chief Burke from Hill Beachy, Sheriff of Lewiston, Idaho Territory, asking for the arrest of William Page, Chris Lowery, James Romaine and Daniel Howard, for having murdered two traders named Lloyd Magruder and Charley Allen, in the woods some 200 miles from Lewiston The case was entrusted to Capt Lees and such other assistants as he should require.

The steamer from the Northern coast had arrived before the dispatch was received, and the police were therefore obliged to hunt for their game after the passengers had dispersed Nothing discouraged, however, by the apparent difficulty of picking out four murderers (two of whom were entirely unknown to any of the police) in a city as large as San Francisco, the detectives went to work After having drummed up and examined many of the passengers who came by the steamer, and found that they were not entitled to a return to Idaho at the expense of that young Territory, their attention was attracted to two rough looking strangers who had taken lodgings at an obscure house on Dupont street, near Market, pretending that they came from Oregon to recuperate broken constitutions, and desired a quiet and secluded room

The police at once instituted close and unceasing watch of the premises, and finding that their men were visited by a very genteel looking young man, they set 'shadows' on his track, and succeeded in discovering that he and a friend were quietly settled in a comfortable hotel, where many better men were staying. The police having now become assured that they were on the track of their game, telegraphed to Sheriff Beachy to come down immediately, and in the meantime spread their toils so around their game that their every movement was known. The suspected parties had purchased new clothes of the best description, and when they went out were sometimes found in the company of many people who little knew with how serious a crime their companions stood charged. They made it a point, however, not to be seen in each other's company One day when the two invalid strangers had taken a walk from their private room on Dupont street, and were enjoying a cruise about the Mission, little suspecting a detective at their heels, Captain Lees entered their room, and found that for sick men they carried a pretty heavy armament, which showed that if sick, they were not so sick as to be indifferent to self protection. The proper moment for making the arrest having arrived, Capt Lees, with officer Evatt, repaired to the Dupont street mansion, walked carelessly into the strangers' room, and taking their well-loaded shot-gun from its place behind the door, brought it to a 'ready,' and directed the strangers to hold up their hands One obeyed very promptly, the other very reluctantly, and not until the second call. Officer Evatt then disarmed them of their revolvers and placed them in irons Simultaneously with this arrest, officer Clarke walked into the room where Romaine was quietly lying in bed, and picking up two revolvers which lay conveniently near, invited him to take a walk to the police office. Officer Greer at the same time brought his man Howard from one of the Melodeons

Sheriff Beachy is now in the city with an executive warrant from Governor Stanford for the extradition of the fugitives, but as the steamer does not leave for the North for a few days, and he does not wish to incur the inconvenience of taking his charge so far overland, he proposes to wait for the steamer. This morning a writ of habeas corpus was sued out before Judge Reynolds for the bodies of the prisoners, returnable at 7 o'clock this evening The success of the officers in arresting these men reflects great credit upon them, and it were a pity if any legal quibble set the murderers free.

Circuit Court.—The following cases have been dismissed:

2—Wm C Griswold vs Bloch Miller & Co
4—Daniel F Bradford vs People's Transportation Co
42—Ladd & Tilton vs O Kellogg et als
52—A Cahn & Co vs J C Hawthorne,
67—Portland and Milwaukie R'd Co vs Alex Dodge
1—D A Russell vs G M Krause

Judgments have been rendered in the following

21—B Q Tucker vs John Mead
33—Wm P Doland, Treasurer vs M Cosgrove et al
54—Charman & Warner vs W R McCord
55—L Brooke vs Wm E Cooper
62—Alex Dodge vs R D Austin
30—W S Ladd vs H D Green et als

The case of Hawthorne et al vs Terwilliger was on trial yesterday afternoon, the suit was brought to recover for professional services rendered in 1859, for the relief of defendant's son The defence is that the services were not worth the amount claimed, and that they were rendered on a contract, which has not been complied with The evidence was all introduced, and the cause will be argued this morning by E W McGraw for plaintiff, and D Logan for defendant

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to November 2d.

Cincinnati Nov 2 —An extraordinary case of treason has lately come to light implicating several persons in this city, Columbus, Covington and Newport in a conspiracy to release the rebel prisoners at Camp Chase and overthrow the State government The conspiracy was brought to light by U S detectives, who were supposed by the parties to be spies from the rebel army, and were treated with full confidence The plot, as described to the detectives, was, that an attack be made on Camp Chase, release the prisoners confined there—numbering 3 500—seize the arsenal at Columbus take possession of the penitentiary and release Morgan and others confined there, and then commence a rebel campaign in Ohio U S Marshal Sand and Provost Marshal Reaner have arrested the following named persons who are implicated in the plot W H Calvert, of Columbus formerly School Commissioner of Ohio, J D Cressap of Columbus, formerly sutler of the 18th Regulars, who were to lead the attack on Camp Chase, Jas D Patton of Covington Ky, regular agent of the rebel Government who frequently furnished money to the detectives under the impression that they were spies, and according to agreement met Calvert at Camp Chase and assisted to mature the plan of attack. Three others, residing in this city and Covington, were also arrested Information was obtained that an organization exists in other parts of the State, and in other camps, to produce similar results Other particulars are known to the authorities, but are not yet made public

Chicago, Nov 1 —We have not yet been able to learn anything of the proceedings of the meeting of stock holders of the Pacific Railroad at New York, on Thursday Oct 29th

Springer Harbaugh, of Pennsylvania and T J Carter, of Illinois, have been appointed as two Government directors, as provided by law

Cairo, Nov 1 —Private advices from below report Gen Sherman skirmishing every day with Lee and Reddy Everything to the war line in that section is contraband The steamer Adrian was fired into by guerrillas, on the 30th ult, below Memphis Eight persons were wounded and one killed Other steamers have also been fired into, but no damage done.

Washington, Nov 2 —The following was received to-day Chattanooga, Oct 29th —Since the fight on the 28th, the enemy has not disturbed us. Gen Hooker took many prisoners and captured nearly 1,000 rifles His loss in killed and wounded is 350

Washington, Nov 2 —We have received the following Headquarters Army at Chattanooga, Oct 29 —To Halleck In the fight last night the enemy attacked Gen Geary's division, posted at Wauhatchie, on three sides and broke his camp at one point, but was driven back in a most gallant style by a part of his forces, the remainder being held in reserve Howard's corps, whilst going to Geary's relief, was attacked on the flank, the enemy occupying in force two commanding hills on the left of the road Howard pushed forward two of his regiments and took both hills at point of the bayonet, driving the enemy from his breastworks and across Lookout creek. In this brilliant success over their old adversary, the conduct of officers and men of the 11th and 12th corps are entitled to the highest praise. Signed, Geo H Thomas,
Major General.

Knoxville, Oct. 30 —Our forces which occupied Loudon have retired to the north side of the river, and now occupy the hights commanding Loudon Other positions are unchanged.

Nashville, Oct 30 —Lieut Col Kuively, of the 1st Middle Tennessee infantry, attacked Hawkins and other guerrilla chiefs near Piney Factory, and routed and pursued them to Centerville, where Hawkins made another stand attacking the Federals while crossing the river Hawkins was again routed and pursued until his force was dispersed with loss of 20 killed and 60 prisoners.

New York, Nov. 2 —The Times' special dispatch says A gentleman from Richmond says the rebel Government is seizing all boots and shoes in that city for the use of Lee's army, which is almost barefooted

Maj Gen. Butler has been assigned to the command of the 18th Army Corps, Department of Virginia and North Carolina, in place of Gen Foster, who is ordered to report here to the Adjutant General It is surmised that Gen. Foster is to take command of the defences of Washington

New York, Nov 2 —The ship Star of the West reports that in latitude 46° 30′ longitude 27, about twelve miles distant, she saw a large ship on fire—the weather being calm she could not approach nearer The same evening she saw a frigate standing eastward Ship Englishman reports that on October 18th she saw the hull of the same ship, which was painted black, and had the appearance of being an American vessel

Yreka, Nov 3 —The wire for the completion of the telegraph from this place to Portland has arrived, and it is the intention of the Company to have the line completed by the first of January, 1864

News by the Steamer.

Dates to November 6th

Baltimore, Oct 30th — The following is published in the American from a responsible correspondent

Annapolis (Md), Oct 29 —A flag of truce boat from City Point has arrived with 130 paroled men. A number died on the boat actually starved to death. Never in the whole course of my life have I witnessed such a scene as these men presented Every man of them had to be sent to the hospital In the surgeon's opinion more than one third of them must die, being beyond the reach of nourishment or medical aid All state that their condition was brought on by the treatment received at the hands of the rebels They have been kept without food, and exposed for a large portion of the time without shelter of any kind.

Philadelphia, Oct. 30th —The subscription agent reports the sales of five twenties to day at six and a half millions Sales for five days this week amount to twenty millions The amount yet unsold is probably one hundred and fifty millions, which may be taken before the close of November

Fortress Monroe, Oct 30th — The Richmond Enquirer says The condition of the currency has become so alarming that its importance has risen even above the excitement of military movements From every quarter in the Confederacy, schemes, expedients and remedies are daily scattered broadcast over the country Suggestions of every character and description are urged One thing is certain and indisputable, the present financial management is an absolute failure, rendered so not by Memminger, but by the people alone The funding scheme of Memminger could succeed only by the co operation of the people—by their coming forward and continuing to convert the currency into bonds It is not necessary to inquire into the reasons why the people have failed The fact that they have not and will not voluntarily fund the currency is an important matter for legislative consideration

Washington, Oct 31st —At the suggestion of numerous medical officers attached to the hospital in this city a large number of sick and wounded soldiers have been and are being furloughed for a short time, in order that they may be sent to their homes in Pennsylvania New York, New Jersey, Michigan and other States

New York, Oct 31st —The Herald's special Washington dispatch says It has been determined by the President not to take any official notice of the French invasion of Mexico until our own domestic difficulties shall have been adjusted

Nashville Oct 30th — Sixty rebel prisoners, including nine officers, captured by Major Fitzgibbons, near Columbia, Tennessee arrived to-night

Brigadier Gen Mitchell was relieved of the command of the cavalry at his own request, on account of ill health

Washington, Oct 30th —Private advices from Chattanooga to-day state that a temporary solution of the difficulty of supplying Chattanooga had been found previous to the recent victories, by building a railroad from Bridgeport to Jasper, a village about twelve miles northeast, the bed of which was graded in part some years since This shortens seventy miles of terrible land carriage to twenty eight, which can be overcome with comparative ease There seems to be no prospect of an immediate grand movement Gen Sherman cannot reach Chattanooga for a month, and the main portion of two army corps has been chiefly engaged in guarding the railroad and other lines of communication The enemy is in no condition, after his recent reverses, to make any serious attempt to improve his position, and the status is therefore likely to be the same for some time hence

Cairo Oct 31st —Southern papers of the 28th, state that the town of Tuscumbia Ala, was captured by our forces, and Gen Osterhaus' division (advance of Sherman's corps) is now in possession. They add "We are unable to learn the date or particulars of the occurrence It is supposed by the informant that it took place on the 24th, firing having been heard in that direction on that day "

Forrest and Wheeler's rebel forces are in the vicinity, endeavoring to prevent our troops from advancing

The following Arkansas items have been received The Union men of Arkansas are moving to have a suitable General appointed as Military Governor. Among others who have been named for that position is A A C Rogers, a well-known Union man

General Price is known to be at Prairie De Han the crossing of the Little Missouri river, thirty miles north of Washington, and above or about thirty miles to the left of the crossing of the same stream by the old military road His forces are reported to number about 8,000, badly equipped, demoralized, and constantly deserting Marmaduke's cavalry are at Arkadelphia, engaged in pillaging and burning cotton

On the 8th October a party of Marmaduke's men shot two private citizens 8 miles from Washington They were taken out and cruelly murdered in presence of their families Eight others were taken away from the same neighborhood, and are supposed to have been murdered

Gen Sherman issued orders dated Iuka, Mississippi, to the effect that citizens who fail to support the Government have no right to ask favors, but if they actively assist in vindicating the National authorities all commanders are required to assist them in every way possible Officers are commanded to engage in no business whatever save their duty to the Government

Chicago Nov 1 —At a meeting of the stock holders of the Pacific Railroad Company at New York on the 29th ult the following Directors were elected George Opdyke, John A Dix, T C Durant E W Dunham, P Clark, E T H Gibson, J F D Lanier A G Jerome, A A Low, G F M Davis August Belmont, L C Clark, Chas Tuttle, H V Poor, George Griswold, all of New York city, J L Pruyn, of Albany E A Rosokrans of Glenn Falls, William B Ogden and J F Tracy, of Chicago; Nathaniel Thayer and C A Lumbard of Boston, C T Bushnell, D W Haven and J H Scranton of Scranton Pennsylvania J Edgar Thompson of Philadelphia, Ebenezer Cook and J E Henry of Davenport, Iowa H L McComb of Wilmington, Delaware, A Koantz of Omaha, John J Blair of Belvidere, N J and S Pomeroy of Atchison, Kansas The total number of shares voted on was 2 007 At the meeting of the Directors on Friday, Major Gen John A Dix was chosen President T C Durant Vice President, John J Cisco Treasurer, and Henry V Poor Secretary

The Atlanta Appeal claims that in the late raid in Rosecrans's rear by Wheeler, 1,100 wagons and 3,500 mules were captured Most of the wagons were destroyed, and the mules shot at McMinnville He destroyed 30 days rations for the entire army He also destroyed two trains and cars loaded for the Chattanooga railroad, and then destroyed the track on the Louisville and Chattanooga road for twenty miles Wheeler acknowledges the loss of three pieces of artillery and 1,000 men, killed, wounded and prisoners

Fortress Monroe, Nov 2 —The Richmond Whig has the following dispatch Charleston, Oct 30 — The bombardment of Sumter to day was as heavy as has ever taken place From sundown on Wednesday till sundown on Thursday 1,250 shot were fired from 10 inch mortars and 300 pounder Parrotts against the Fort Our loss was 7

This evening the enemy opened fire from a battery at Cummings Point on the northeast angle of the Fort, which seems to be the special object of their attentions The enemy's batteries engaged were those of Gregg's, Wagner's, Centre Battery and Cummings Point Battery, with the addition of three Monitors The bombardment of Sumter still goes on but the fire is much slackened Our batteries fire slowly and deliberately The enemy at present pays no attention to them

New York Nov 3 —The Tribune's Cape of Good Hope correspondent says that the Alabama has been to Grand Islands, but returned to Simon's Bay on the 21st August She was supposed to have gone to Mauritius The Tuscaloosa is supposed to have gone east It was expected that the Vanderbilt might fall in with her

The Tribune's Washington special of Nov 2d, from the front says We learn there are indications of a disposition on the part of Gen Meade to attack the enemy The truth as to whether Lee intends to fight or not will soon be settled There is no need of hunting for a foe as they are all around

The appointment of Gen Butler to the Department of which Fortress Monroe is at present the headquarters, is considered as an earnest of a purpose to continue the war in that quarter on what are briefly known as Butler's principles

Chicago Nov 3 —In regard to the plot for the release of rebel prisoners at Camp Chase, the Cincinnati Gazette says The plot has been brewing for many months past, and was only discovered by the continual watchful vigilance of detectives The plan which had been concerted was nearly as follows On a certain night, which had not been definitely fixed a sufficient number of the conspirators were to assemble in the vicinity of Camp Chase, and at a given signal were to overpower the guard, which was far from being a strong one At the same time the prisoners who were to be apprised of what was going on, and who number about 4 000 were to make a rush from the inside, and thus secure their freedom Having armed themselves with the weapons of the guard, they were then to march on Columbus, led by Cathcart, and seize the arsenal, arming themselves completely with United States arms stored there Thence their next attack was to be on the Penitentiary for the release of John Morgan and his men by whom the rebel army in Ohio was to be officered Then the rebel campaign in Ohio was to be commenced, and the first proceedings on the part of the traitors was to be the cutting of the telegraph wires and the burning of the railroad bridges in order to prevent the arrival of national troops The parties involved in the matter are very numerous and may be found in almost every part of the State some of them occupying positions under the United States and State Government which rendered it somewhat of an extra task for the detectives to find the nest of traitors A leading man in the conspiracy was Charles W Cathcart who was elected by the Vallandigham Democrats last fall, to fill the office of School Commissioner for Ohio Eight persons were arrested on Saturday, some of whom were placed under bonds of $10,000 each

St Louis Nov 4 —At the city election at Hannibal, Missouri, yesterday the entire Radical ticket was elected

Washington Nov 4 —From a recent reconnaissance it appears that the rebels in small force, have been engaged in guarding the approaches to the Rappahannock on this side of the river It is reported that considerable information has recently been gleaned of the enemy's strength positions etc which if true, will enable Gen Meade to take active measures

Leavenworth, Nov 4 —Returns from various parts of Kansas indicate that the full Union ticket receives (a majority of) about 1,000 vote

St Louis Nov 3 —Incomplete returns indicate a radical majority in this city of 2,000 over the copperheads and conservatives This does not include the soldiers' vote which as far as heard from is almost unanimously radical Sedalia St Joseph and Jefferson City give majorities for the radicals

Newark N J Nov 4 —As the result of the election to-day the Assembly will probably stand 4 democrats to 3 republicans—a gain for the latter of 2

Chicago, Nov 4 —Returns received thus far from the election for county officers in this State [illegible] considerable Union gains This city gives a Union majority of over 2,700—a gain of 2,800 since last spring The vote has been light

Returns from the Wisconsin election for State officers yesterday, show large Union gains and indicate the election of Lewis (republican) for Governor, by from 12 to 15 000

Boston Nov 4 —Andrew, for Governor has a majority in this city of 2 417 The republican gain on the vote of last year is 4,000 It is doubtful whether the opposition have elected more than six representatives They will probably not elect a single Senator The opposition vote in the State will hardly reach 40,000.

New York Nov 4 —Returns from 16 wards give a democratic majority of nearly 19 000, indicating a majority in this city of about 22 000 It is thought the election in the State will result in a Union majority of from 15 to 20,000 Returns from 31 counties give Depew Union candidate for Secretary of State 24 260 majority Eighteen counties are yet to hear from The exact democratic majority in this city is 19,982 Col Wood Union Mayor, is elected in Brooklyn by 1 600 majority

A severe mob fight occurred yesterday afternoon at the Manhattanville poll in the Eleventh ward in consequence of the arrest of a rowdy who assaulted a peaceable citizen Several policemen were injured, but they finally succeeded in quelling the riot and arresting many of the ringleaders

A Folly Island letter of the 29th, to the Herald, speaking of re opening the bombardment on Sumter, says From all our sources of information we judge the intention of the enemy to be the occupation of the battered walls of Sumter with a sand battery similar to Wagner, but unlike that work secure from approach by sap or parallel The present purpose of Gen Gilmore it is believed, is to prevent the consummation of Beauregard's plans, and if necessity to level the foundations of Sumter to the water's edge Moultrie and Johnson have so far directed their shots against battery Gregg but the accuracy of their fire is entirely destroyed by the guns which we have trained upon them On Tuesday five of our heavy rifled guns, between Gregg and Wagner, were directed at the spire of St Nicholas Church in Charleston, and at least three shells exploded in the city Whether they were successful in accomplishing any damage is as yet unknown The general belief is that our batteries will succeed in utterly destroying Sumter, and driving the rebel soldiers from its diminished garrison Deserters from the enemy now acknowledge a fear among the rebel soldiery that we will yet get into the city Those who closely watched Fort Sumter on Monday morning, say a steamer took from it to the city a large number of troops immediately after our batteries opened upon it

Washington, Nov 4 —The United States Treasurer, Gen Spinner, has received orders to redeem whenever presented with interest to date, all the certificates of indebtedness requiring gold payments of interest falling due between the present time and the 10th of March The amount of interest on these certificates is over $4,000,000

The following dispatch has been received from Chattanooga the 3d

To Gen Halleck Gen Granger reports from Nashville that he sent a detachment of cavalry from that place to pursue Hawkins and other guerrillas He overtook Hawkins near Piney Factory, routing him and pursued him to Centreville, where he made another stand and was again routed and dispersed The rebels lost 15 or 20 killed, and 66 prisoners Our loss was slight

The following from Quartermaster General Meigs is reported under date of Oct 29th Last night the 11th Corps entered on the campaign, Gen Geary some four miles up Lookout Valley, being attacked by Longstreet While passing two steep wooded hills, about 150 feet in height, they received a volley from the rebel force which had occupied an entrenched position on the summit Nothing was done until after dark, when four regiments assaulted the hill and without firing a shot steadily advanced by the light of the moon and drove the rebels out of their rifle pits and down the slope of the hill The assault was difficult but successful When these hills were taken they marched to the assistance of Gen. Geary, who held the rebels at bay, and Longstreet was driven back

Cairo, Nov. 4,—We have Memphis dates to the 2d There has been a fight at Pine Bluff Ark, accounts of which are rather indefinite From all we can learn it occurred on Wednesday or Thursday last Marmaduke attacked the place with about 3,000 rebels The garrison numbered only 700 cavalry with the 7th Kansas The rebels were repulsed losing a considerable number in killed and wounded Our loss was 12 killed and 15 wounded Gen Lee's force, numbering about 10,000 are divided a portion being between Vicksburg and Oxford while another portion under the immediate command of Gen Lee is in the vicinity of Corinth Various bands are roaming about, conscripting every man into the service, burning cotton and committing other depredations

Philadelphia, Nov 4 —A Chattanooga dispatch to the Republican says In the recent fight with Hooker's force the rebels were severely punished, and did not resume the fight Hooker, after the fight, strongly intrenched himself all along his lines Gens Grant and Thomas were with him on Thursday, and considered him safe A rebel battery on Lookout Mountain played on him all day, without doing any harm

The Bulletin has a Cincinnati dispatch which says there is nothing new from Burnside We have possession of Tuscumbia Ala There has probably been a severe fight in that quarter between Sherman and a heavy force sent there to dispute his passage

Washington, Nov 4,—The Richmond papers have the following

Charleston, Oct 31 —The enemy's fire on Sumter last night was furious and incessant from the land batteries At four o'clock this morning a portion of the wall fell in, burying beneath the ruins some men belonging to the 12th Georgia and 25th South Carolina Thirteen are missing from the force The bombardment has been kept up to day from the monitors and land batteries No other casualties have occurred Over 1,200 shot have been fired in the last 24 hours

Charleston Nov 1 —The bombardment of Sumter has been continued last night and to day, the shots averaging four per minute The firing was from two Monitors two heavy and two light rifled guns at Gregg, a ten inch mortar at the middle battery and four rifled guns at Wagner On Saturday the enemy fired 86 shots from the Monitors and 373 from the mortars The flag was so cut to pieces that the battle flag of the 12th Georgia was raised instead of it The casualties on Saturday were two killed and four wounded The bombardment is still severe

New York Nov 5 —The specials are barren this morning The Herald's Army of the Potomac dispatch describes the men as in fine spirits The sick had been removed to Washington The sutlers have all fallen back, and the army is ready for any movement

The Times dispatch says a refugee from Richmond brings intelligence that at Manchester, near Richmond on James river, a gunboat clad with three thicknesses of 2 inch iron is within six weeks of completion that it is at Rocketts at the foot of Main street, and two other ironclads are on the stocks, that hence their security is so complete. Large iron works (private property) are in process of construction by a man named Bradley in Manchester and the machine shops at the Central Railroad depot will be considerably enlarged Two cotton mills have recently been erected at Manchester and permanent improvements have been made on the Tredegar works and the bridges Over the river two woolen mills in Manchester turn out 1 450 yards of army cloth per week which is sold to Government at $5 the yard The force under Lee's command, it is positively stated, are now only 30 000

Nashville, Nov 4 — Major Fitzgibbon of the 14th Michigan cavalry, with 120 men, met at Lawrenceburg, 35 miles beyond Columbia the combined forces of Cook Kirk, Williams and Scott's rebel, numbering 400 men, yesterday After four desperate charges resulting in the loss to the rebels of 8 killed, 7 wounded and 24 prisoners, the rebels retreated None were killed on the Federal side, three were wounded.

The rebel prisoners are in captain [illegible] two heaten [illegible] Cairo [illegible]

Cincinnati Nov [illegible] —Advices from Knoxville [illegible] 4th, says that East Tennessee is once more [illegible] by guerrillas who infest our [illegible] The fight at Rogersville Springs resulted in a rebel rout—17 killed and 52 wounded, and [illegible] pursued them beyond Kingsport The weather is fine and the troops in good spirits

Washington Nov 4 —Advices from the front to day are unimportant It was anticipated that before this a [illegible] would have occurred, but the monotony of [illegible] is undisturbed

New York Nov 4 —The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Press, writing yesterday, says [illegible] were very prevalent last night of fighting between Meade and Lee [illegible] have received no confirmation up to the present hour It is now positively asserted by those who have the best means of knowing that Meade has imperative orders to bring on a battle and in the event of failure he will be superseded The radicals it is said, have come from Halleck and furthermore they are backed by the President Up to yesterday however it was [illegible] that there were no preparations for a forward movement on the part of Meade were made but on the contrary he seemed inclined to maintain his defensive position The rebel force on the Rappahannock [illegible] has been considerably reduced and any [illegible] movement on their part is not probable

Fortress Monroe Nov 4 —Richmond papers of the 2d mention the landing of 6,000 Yankees at Newport News

Advices from Newbern N C [illegible] the 2d says that the canvass for the election on the 4th, for four members of the Confederate Congress is being pressed with energy by both parties There are 28 candidates in 10 districts John A Gilmer, the independent candidate in the Fourth District, has the field all to himself Davidson is out with another Constitutional argument against secession The Standard appeals to the Conservatives to unite against the Destructives on election day Upon the recent Democratic defeat in Ohio and Pennsylvania it says The last ray of hope of the South from the North has departed Lincoln will be re-elected and the prospects of peace are further distant than ever, the Southern people stand alone with the world against them, and they had better make peace with Providence or the North very soon,

Washington Nov 4 —The President has recognized [illegible] Rodriguez as Consul for the Mexican Republic, at San Francisco—thus giving another official acknowledgement of the Mexican Government with out regard to French intervention.

Cairo Nov 5 —We have Memphis dates to the 4th The Bulletin contains a communication detailing the most horrible cruelties practiced by Porter's rebel conscription in Carroll county They take all the loyal men, running them down with bloodhounds having all kinds, and insulting them One crew went into the house of an old man named Crenfell and the soldiers took all his horses and carried off all the young stock and everything moveable in the house They then went into Milan where they broke open the stores and robbed them of their goods

Corinth dates of the 1st state that about two thirds of the 1st Alabama Regiment was recently surrounded by a large force of rebels, but succeeded in reaching Corinth though they probably lost many killed and captured

Iuka, Nov 5 —A fight occurred between a party of guerrillas and an Ohio brigade in which a few were killed on both sides We have no further particulars

[illegible] report from Paducah says that the rebels have left the vicinity of Marysville, after doing all the damage they could

Intelligence from Memphis the 4th, states that the rebels attacked Collierville again on the 3d and after a brief but sanguinary struggle, the rebels were repulsed Several prisoners were captured among them Brig Gen Geary and three officers We have no definite report in regard to the number of killed and wounded

[illegible] from Little Rock report Price as having retired [illegible] Red river His cavalry only occupy Arkadelphia We have but a few additional particulars in regard to the attack on Pine Bluff The rebel force numbered from 3,000 to 4,000 with 12 pieces of artillery Their loss is said to have been great as the rout was complete Pine Bluff was badly damaged by shells Steps have been taken to intercept the rebel retreat

New York Nov 5 —The latest returns show the Union majority to be 33 750 The Senate stands 21 Unionists to 11 democrats The Assembly, 83 Union to 45 democrats.

The ship Europa reports Sept 28th in lat 1° 30 South, long 26° 25′ being chased by a full rigged brig, but lost sight of her during the night

Janesville, Wis Nov 5 —The returns indicate the election of Lewis by 15 000 majority home vote and a large gain in the Legislature for the Union

Baltimore Nov 5 —Returns come in slowly The result in the First District doubtful as yet It is generally conceded that Canfield (opposition) will be elected Webster, Davis and Thomas will be elected in the Second Third and Fourth Districts The Fifth District is doubtful Holland, the Emancipation Union candidate runs well, and is possibly elected [illegible] (Emancipation) is elected State Controller by a considerable majority This State has, by its vote, emphatically declared itself in favor of emancipation.

Washington Nov 5 —A released prisoner from Richmond reports that shortly after the battle of Chickamauga 500 wounded prisoners arrived at Richmond, all in a famishing condition They were four days on the road between the two points, and all they had to eat during the time was four hard crackers When they arrived in Richmond they were taken to the Libby Prison, where they lay two days longer without having their wounds dressed, during which time they had not anything to eat Some of them who had money offered $5 for a loaf of bread, but the officer in charge would not allow it to be carried to them This prisoner says that others in the flag of truce boat while passing Drury's Bluff were made to lie down, and a special guard placed over them, that they might not see the fortifications

Chicago Nov 6 —The result of the election in New Jersey is as follows The Legislature will stand—In the Senate Republican, 7, Democratic 9 In the House Democratic, 39, Republican, 20,—with one district to hear from

New York, Nov 6.—The Tubal Cain from St Domingo, reports the revolution on that island in full blast The rebels had possession of the entire island with exception of the capital and the east end They were reported as within a few miles of St Domingo but two recent victories were claimed by the Spaniards near Dela Mesa and Monte Platt in one of which they captured many muskets and a number of prisoners The Captain-General of St Domingo had been removed and Don Carlos de Bargos of Spain, a man of great ability appointed in his place He is expected to crush the rebellion promptly

The Times's special dispatch says the mortality among our paroled prisoners at Annapolis, and the conclusive testimony of the barbarous treatment received by those in Richmond, have determined our Government to apply the corrective of retaliation if the rebel authorities upon remonstrance do not treat our captured men in accordance with the rules of war The scarcity of food in Richmond may give color to the plea of inevitable necessity as an excuse for the insufficient rations meted out to our men; but there is no design in this starvation—the rebels mean to force us to return to the old system of exchange which excluded the officers of negro regiments and those of Col Streight's command They will not succeed The President will not fail to protect the black men who have taken up arms at his call nor white men who command them He will not tolerate any proposition which seeks to establish distinctions between black and white soldiers as prisoners

The Tribune's Army of the Potomac correspondence of November 5th has the following One full corps of Lee's army is reported this evening, as encamped at Brandy Station Stuart's cavalry are extending their lines on the south side of the Rappahannock Lee's headquarters is at Culpepper Deserters report that his army stretches from Culpepper to the Heights of Fredericksburg and that it numbers about 4,000 men An armed reconnoissance to the Rappahannock to Hartwood Court house and Falmouth reports the country clear of regular rebels so far as observed [illegible] They encountered several stragglers [illegible] A [illegible] movement by Kilpatrick's cavalry yesterday [illegible] the rebel pickets, near Dagwood [illegible] The 1st Michigan pursued them to Falmouth [illegible] but being reinforced the rebels after [illegible] a skirmishing gave way and were driven across the Rappahannock with small loss As night approached [illegible] cavalry fell back, having accomplished the object of the reconnoissance The enemy's force consisted of two regiments of cavalry

Washington Nov 6 —The guerrillas made a raid on [illegible] station on Wednesday, capturing several horses and mules These roving bands of guerrillas are now prevented [illegible] from going towards Vienna and have abandoned [illegible] school Several parties of guerrillas have dashed [illegible] lines on the left in Prince William county during the last few days

Chicago Nov 6 —The following is given in regard to the attack on Pine Bluff Ark October 25th The rebels under Marmaduke attempted to surprise the garrison at that place, of which Col Clayton was in command Having about an hour's notice of their approach the Federals seized a sufficient quantity of cotton to barricade the streets [illegible] in the vicinity of the court house Having 11 cannon they placed them in such a position as to rake the streets leading to the centre of the city The force was less than 700 cavalry and no infantry At 9 o'clock the rebels made a simultaneous attack from the south, east and southwest on the city and commenced throwing shell into the city without giving time for noncombatants to leave There was great excitement among the women and children, who were exposed [illegible] under the banks of the river while they [illegible] through the old and dreary day until the [illegible] was over which was about 5 o'clock in the evening Early in the forenoon Marmaduke sent a flag of truce, demanding a surrender which was refused Within 10 minutes after the refusal the artillery opened from every direction [illegible] by cotton At 10 o'clock Marmaduke ordered a general [illegible] in three [illegible] Clayton then ceased firing [illegible] within 100 feet when he opened with [illegible] among the rebels, [illegible] large number of them [illegible] was made [illegible] The firing then ceased for a while [illegible] with no better [illegible] Col Clayton had taken the precaution early in [illegible] in the morning to bring within [illegible] 100 horses and stabled them in a warehouse [illegible] dark the Colonel determined [illegible] the enemy A few cotton bales were removed and 150 cavalry started forth [illegible] who were 1 000 feet distant This caused considerable confusion among the rebels many of whom were engaged in robbing houses They were quickly dispersed and driven in every direction Our cavalry followed the main force two miles and then returned The last heard of Marmaduke was in the vicinity of [illegible] 15 miles off Nearly every private house in Pine Bluff was plundered The enemy left their dead and wounded on the field to the number of [illegible] loss was 11 killed and 34 wounded Many [illegible] Bluff some of whom were formerly in [illegible] his arms and fought with a hearty will against [illegible] comrades

Arkadelphia is reported in the hands of Gen Steele. [illegible] are clamoring as to enlistments [illegible] in the Federal army—two regiments are being formed at Little Rock, and one at Batesville

Foreign News.

"East Lynne."—This charming novel, by [illegible] Henry Wood, has quite a number of [illegible] here, and has been the source of a [illegible] joke, even in the very portions least cal[illegible] to swell the jocular vein. Some little [illegible] since a copy found its way into a very [illegible] family, and was first perused by [illegible] only single daughter, an accomplished [illegible] of — May mornings Of course she [illegible] as she read, but the staid matron who [illegible] in that house laughed and impressed [illegible] the mind of her youngest darling the [illegible] of being affected to tears. The older [illegible] read it in turn, with like results, and [illegible] became the butt of mother's ridicule for [illegible] over a novel " When the play was [illegible] for Monday evening, the girls con[illegible] their opportunity was come, and per[illegible] mama to accompany them to the per[illegible] She went; and being a woman of [illegible] sensibilities and sympathetic heart, her [illegible] were far from tearless, and now and then [illegible] audible sob was caught by the mischievous [illegible] simultaneously weeping daughters They [illegible] be laughed at any more for crying over [illegible] nonsensical novel."

[EAST] LYNNE"—This charming novel, by [Mrs] Henry Wood, has quite a number of [readers] here, and has been the source of n[illegible] [people], even in the very portions least cal[culated] to swell the jocular vein Some little [time since] a copy found its way into a very [illegible] family, and was first perused by [the on]ly single daughter, an accomplished [young lady] of—May mornings Of course she [cried as] she read, but the staid matron who [presided] in that house laughed and impressed [upon the] mind of her youngest darling the [absurdity] of being affected to tears The older [sister read] it in turn, with like results, and [each be]came the butt of mother's ridicule for [crying] over a novel" When the play was [announce]d for Monday evening, the girls con[sidered] their opportunity was come, and per[suaded their] mama to accompany them to the per[formance] She went, and being a woman of [sensi]bilities and sympathetic heart, her [eyes] were far from tearless, and now and then [an audi]ble sob was caught by the mischievous [and sim]ultaneously weeping daughters They [have] laughed at any more for crying over [a sen]sational novel"

[Steamer] DUE —The Wilson G Hunt arrived [at five] o'clock, P M, yesterday, bringing [only a] few passengers, but thirty of whom [illegible] Wells, Fargo & Co received [a sm]all parcel of gold, some $9 000 or [illegible], and so far as could be ascertained, n[illegible] [no]t to exceed it much was in possession [of private] parties.

[Rain] —We understand that it rained quite [hard at] the Dalles yesterday Our readers [will no]t be reminded that we had a "right [smart] chance of a shower" here

[Favors] —S J. McCormick furnished us [this mor]ning with a handsome budget of pe[riodica]ls, magazines, and other good things [in his li]ne. His store is full this morning.

J. R. HAMILTON, M. D., Homeopathist,

WOULD respectfully inform the citizens of Portland and vicinity that he has located in said town for the practice of his profession.

You that have [illegible] try Ginger ye still Where [illegible] your system will fill;
Why linger ye still [illegible] beaten path
Try the sweet [illegible] sure you will laugh,
You will laugh and grow fat with [illegible]
And bless the M. D's that dispense sugar pills

Then come with [illegible] symptoms so rare
The globules are potent [illegible] despair
While the life-blood [illegible] the heart,
[illegible] there old [illegible] art
Then beauty and health to [illegible] will return
And for earth's greatest blessing no more will you yearn

With health for your art the battle's half won
Your friends will feel happy [illegible] young
And you will think less of the battle of life
When the discord of ignorance [illegible] strife
Then say to your neighbors [illegible] have found—
Homeopathy is the thing for the priest or the clown

History of the Introduction of Sheep into Oregon

The following is made up from the personal knowledge of the writer and the verbal information of persons who were personally acquainted with the facts, and will indicate how sheep husbandry in Oregon came by its present condition

Previous to 1838 all the sheep and cattle in Oregon were held by the Hudson's Bay Company, who, it is believed, brought their first stock of both from California, and refused to sell any of either kind to the United States and Americans who were settled in the country at that time In the summer of that year an arrangement was entered into by Dr Jason Lee, Superintendent of the M E Mission and Ewing Young and A. J. Hubbard according to which, the two latter were to make their way to California by land, and purchase cattle While they were preparing for the trip, Mr Slocum an agent of the U S Government, on a flying visit to the Pacific to look after American interests took Oregon on his way from the Sandwich Islands to California, and met Dr Lee at Fort Vancouver And learning from him the condition of the settlers in their relations to the H B Co, and their proposed plan of getting cattle of their own (what they had were held as loans from the Company), generously offered to take the party down the coast with him in his vessel He came up into the Willamette valley, and a meeting of the settlers was called They accepted his kind offer, to which he added the loan of some money The party went and met there with an American settler by the name of Lease who owned a considerable flock of sheep, part of which from the representations of Messrs Young and Hubbard, he concluded to drive to Oregon, and did selling the most of them to members of the H B Company and to Bishop Blanchet of the Catholic Mission. From that time forward the settlements received additional lots of sheep and cattle In 1842, between three and four hundred head of sheep were brought from California In 1844, the first lot of sheep were brought across the Plains from Missouri by Mr Joshua Shaw and Mr. A C R Shaw They came successfully, and increased rapidly, and gave their owners profit as well as honor for their enterprise In 1847, a Mr Fields brought a flock of superior sheep across the Plains And he dying soon after his arrival here his sheep were sold in small lots, which laid the foundation of many of the best flocks now in Marion and adjoining counties In 1848, Mr Joseph Watt brought 330 head across—bringing with him at the same time a wool carding machine, the first brought to the country To Mr. Watt is also due the credit of being among the first to engage in the enterprise which established the woolen factory at Salem, the first of its kind on the Pacific coast, and which owes its birth mainly to those engaged in the development of sheep husbandry in Oregon

The character of the sheep first brought across the Plains was generally that of a strong medium sized sheep, bearing a heavy, middle grade wool, suitable for the home manufacture of the settlers, and were much preferred to the California sheep already here and rams of the former were used for the improvement of the latter Mr Watt brought five rams and two ewes of the Saxon Merino and six high grade Spanish Merino ewes In 1852, Hiram Smith brought across some full blooded Spanish Merino sheep, for the purpose of engaging in the raising of fine wool, but becoming discouraged with the prospect, or disgusted with the general apathy of the people on the subject of what he thought a great future interest, he sold his sheep Shortly after the discovery of the gold mines in California, sheep began to be driven back to that country from Oregon, also thus getting rid of much of the California sheep yet remaining unimproved In 1854, Dr Tolmie, an employee of the H. B Co drove into Oregon from Washington Territory a considerable quantity of sheep (about 1,500 head, I think) They were, generally speaking, a poor lot of sheep, grades, some high, but mostly low, of bucks imported from Britain, coupled with California ewes, some South Down, some Merino, and some few Leicester The sheep seemed to have been badly kept, and nearly every one who purchased of them bought the scab with them—the first seen of that disease in Oregon By special purchase several parties became owners of small lots of pure, or nearly pure South Downs and Merinos, but differing so much from sheep of the same breeds subsequently introduced from the Atlantic States that they were generally designated as H B South Down, or Merino

In 1857, J H Williams, U S Consul at Sydney, New South Wales, purchased 280 thorough bred Merino sheep for shipment to California On the arrival of the sheep at San Francisco, part of them were purchased by Martin Jesse and brought to Oregon, which laid the foundation for what is now called here the Australian Merino In 1859, R C Geer, of Silverton, Marion county, introduced the South Downs from the Atlantic States In 1860, Messrs Jones & Rockwell introduced the French and Spanish Merino sheep from the State of Vermont into Oregon Later in the same year, Messrs Jewett & Lane, the former of Vermont, followed suit with a number of sheep, part of which were pure French Merino, and part of which those interested subsequently learned were grade sheep taken from the flock of Col Hollister, of California The scab also made its appearance in the flocks of several of those who purchased the Jewett & Lane sheep immediately after the purchase. In 1861, Donald M'Leod, of Amity, Yamhill county, brought one hundred and fifty thorough-bred Spanish Merinos from Vermont across the plains. More recently, there has been brought into this country from the flock of J D Patterson, of California French Merinos, by Luelling and Mills, of Washington county, and from time to time during the last five years there have been single animals of popular English breeds brought to the country, as the New Oxford shire and Hampshire Down, by Mr John Coggswell, of Lane county, and the Cotswold, by Benjamin Stark, of Portland, so that now the means of improving his flocks up to the highest standard of excellence is within reach of every sheep raiser in Oregon who wishes to so improve (As this is written entirely from the memory of others, and myself, there may be errors in it, as well as events forgotten which deserve a record Any person having knowledge of either, will confer a favor by communicating the same to JOHN MINTO, Salem)—Essay published in States man

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, WASHINGTON, D C
SIR I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ [illegible] Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ [illegible] seldom found a case of bilious [illegible] readily yield to them [illegible]
ALONZO BALL, M D, Physician of the Marine Hospital

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARTLAND Liv Co, Mich
DR. AYER Your Pills are the perfection of medicine They have done my wife more good than I can tell you [illegible] sick and pining away for months Went off to be doctored at great expense but got no better She then commenced taking your Pills which soon cured her by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her [illegible] our two children of bloody dysentery [illegible] had it bad and my wife cured [illegible] while others around us [illegible] bills, and lost much [illegible] then Such a [illegible] honest will be prized here
